Grade 4 Story. Read the text. Then answer the questions.

The Big Move

Nora felt nervous on her first day at her new school. Her family had just moved to a new town, and she did not know anyone. At lunch she sat alone and stared at her tray. Then a girl named Priya sat down beside her. "I like your bracelet," said Priya. She showed Nora where to put her tray and invited her to play at recess. By the end of the week, Nora had three new friends, and the school no longer felt so big.
